East Midlands Conference Centre Nottingham

A conference for supervisors of midwives and those with an interest in supervision

This exciting biennial conference, usually held in April, attracts 500 delegates; the maximum capacity at the EMCC. Supervisors of midwives are senior members of their profession, having at least three years experience in their field. Your audience is therefore drawn from the most senior, influential midwives, all involved in the running of their units.

£200 deposit will secure your stand

(Full payment to be received by 30th November 2011)
